Thank You for Prayers of Safety

Hurricane Matthew threatened many families in Florida, Georgia, South Carolina and North Carolina, as well as the Christian Educators business office. Miss Gentile posted messages for our Apex and Gradpoint students urging families to pray. We want to thank you for your concern and prayers. As a praise report, God kept the storm 25 miles off the coast, slowing wind speed significantly. The storm also hit Cape Canaveral at low tide. Mr. and Mrs. Z and the CEA office were blessed and did not sustain any wind or water damages. We were without power for a few days, and some of our families suffered outages as well. If your family suffered any damage or power outages for over 7 days, please contact the business office as soon as possible. 800-665-0501.

Student and Teacher ID cards!

With a digital passport photo, or 1x1 "head" shot photo, CEA will create an ID card. Many stores give 10% discounts! In order to do these ID cards, students must submit photos on or before December 15th.

Photo Contest

Every year, CEA runs a photo contest for all students in both the Apex and Gradpoint curriculum. We encourage all students to participate to win prizes and to share with the staff a little more about you.

Theme and Rules: This year, photos should be about your favorite thing to do... any hobbies, sports, activities, or favorite vacation! Be creative, or use a recent photo.

CEA Gear....

A little note to let you know that there is CEA Gear available for purchase through our RedBubble store! The items ship directly to you, and you can pick out exactly what you are looking for. There is a wide range of items: notebooks, clothing, tote bags, phone cases, etc.. all with our official logo on it. Just as a note, CEA doesn't make any profit off of these items, we made it that way to keep it the lowest cost that we could while still making it easy for all students to have lots of choices and easy shipping! Miss G's favorite is the drawstring bag-(lower left).
